

“Aurora as I Saw It”: Familiar and Vanished Scenes from the Reminiscences of Baldwin “Baldy” Avery

Football on Main St., 1935

Two grocery stores, ten gas pumps, dresses delivered from Rothschild's, tea rooms and soda fountains ... even a stoplight!

Discover bygone Aurora at the

AURORA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

located behind the Aurora Arts and Design Center, 371 Main St., on the courtyard with Vintage Lighting; it is fully accessible by the walkway along the white wooden fence.

HOURS:

Tuesday and Wednesday, 1:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Friday and Saturday, 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

THROUGH JULY 5TH